

SCRAPER OF 62 STORIES FOR EQUITABLE LIFE

Plans Filed for Insurance Company's New Home, Tallest Building in the World.

Its tower rearing 600 feet above Broadway, and the gold ball of its flag-staff mounting 150 feet higher, the proposed new Equitable Life Assurance Society Building will be the loftiest in the world. Plans and survey maps are now on file with the Superintendent of Buildings for a building sixty-two stories high.

D. H. Burnham & Co., Chicago architects, filed the plans. The building will cost from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000. Repeated rumors that the Equitable was to erect the tallest of skyscrapers have been denied, but the filing of the plans indicates that a start has really been made. Several years will be required to put up the mammoth structure.

The new building will be erected on the site of the present home of the Equitable and will take in the entire block bounded by Broadway, Nassau, Pine and Cedar streets. The Metropolitan Building rises to a height of 500 feet 6 inches, and the Singer Building 615 feet 1 inch.

According to the plans filed yesterday the main building of the Equitable will be of thirty-four stories, or 385 feet. Above the main building will be a square tower of twenty-eight stories, capped with a cupola, the tower and cupola being 40 feet high, making the total sixty-two stories of 690 feet. A battery of thirty-three passenger elevators will be installed in a great elevator corridor finished in bronze.

There will also be elevators for freight exclusively. Brick and granite with trimmings of terra cotta will be the materials for the facade, and the design will be of the Renaissance type, providing a base between great pillars of Corinthian and Doric pattern, the corners being offset with clustered columns.

The new Equitable skyscraper will come only a few feet short of the Eiffel Tower, the highest structure yet reared by man in the age of steel. That tower is 984 feet above the ground, but the highest point to which the public may ascend is 966 feet. From the top of the famous tower of Paris a view of eighty miles may be had, which is about the view one may get from the top of New York's greatest skyscraper when it is completed.

THEATRICAL FIELD DAY.

Chinese Actors Will Assist in Novel Charity Entertainment.

Twenty Chinese actors from their theatre in Doyers street will join with their fellow-players of the Broadway stages in making merry for charity at the theatrical field day to be held July 17 at the Polo Grounds in aid of the Home for Destitute Crippled Children. The Chinese company will present in the open air the latest hit from China, a playlet called "The Duel" culminating in a thrilling sword duel in which all take part.

"The Duel" is a typical Chinese production, the only evidence of modernity being its brevity. The average productions taking several days to present. This is the first time that the Chinese actors have appeared outside of their theatre. They will be accompanied by a number of dignitaries from Chinatown in holiday costume.

The baseball game between the sou-brettes and the prima donnas arranged for the field day is stirring up the comedienne and vocalists to a high pitch of excitement over the allotment of field positions. Mrs. Mabel Hill-Donlin promises to appear with her "hair loose" and with her husband, the redoubtable Mike Donlin, coaching on the side lines.

In the game between the managers and the actors George Evans has agreed to appear as a Roman Senator in flowing toga. Scores of athletes have volunteered their services and the prettiest girls in town are being given helpful positions.

Blondin's Hat Is 13 Feet in Circumference and 41-2 in Diameter.

Her measurements show that the width of the brim is sixteen inches, the height of the crown eleven inches and the diameter of the crown twenty-two and a half inches, or five feet and five-eighths in circumference.

The hat was made to order by a leading Brooklyn hat manufacturer to shade the head of Coney Island's foremost animal performer at this time, one Blondin, a pachyderm of the gentler sex, so named because of its tight-rope walking ability, and the one big novelty of the Bostock show in Dreamland. Blondin makes her entrance in the arena wearing this enormous hat and dances to the music of the "Merry Widow" waltz, a preliminary to her regular performance.

Did Blondin approve of the hat when it was first brought to her? Not at all, she found fault with it immediately and refused to wear it, and it required the persuasive powers of her trainer to make her realize that the hat was most becoming and a thing of beauty any elephant should be proud of.

When Blondin closes her season at Coney Island she will be sent over the country by Mr. Bostock to appear in the vaudeville houses, taking her "Merry Widow" hat along.

HIGH LICENSE IN LOUISIANA.

Legislature Passes the Shattuck-Gay Liquor Bill.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 30.—That Louisiana shall be a high license State for the next two years at least, was decided by the Assembly last night when the Senate passed the Shattuck-Gay Liquor bill by a vote of 29 to 4.

When the measure was passed the House and Senate passed the bill, which fixes the minimum parish (county) license at $50, minimum State at $200, with maximum licenses running up to several thousand dollars each.

ALARM OUT FOR A MISSING MAN

Van Veen Bought Toothache Drops in Drug Store, Then Disappeared.

A general alarm has been sent out for Simon Van Veen, a cigar dealer, who lives with his wife and son at No. 54 East One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street, and who disappeared yesterday. Mr. Van Veen has a cigar store at No. 179 East One Hundred and Twenty-first street, and shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday he left the place, telling two carpenters who were doing some work for him he would return in a few minutes. He went to a drug store at One Hundred and Twenty-first street and Third avenue, and purchased some toothache drops, and that was the last seen of him.

When he did not return to his home at 9 o'clock last evening his family became alarmed at his absence, and wife and son went to the store and found the place open. They could find no clue to Mr. Van Veen.
